Introit God is gone up with a shout
Eric Harding Thiman

1900-1975

*God is gone up with a shout.
The Lord with the sound of a trumpet.*

Welcome

Call to Worship

With lives open to the gift of healing, the gift of forgiveness,
the gift of renewal, the gift of life,

We gather in faith to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Hymn 136 There's a wideness in God's mercy
vv. 1, 3, 5

Prayer of Approach

God of all time, may we live each day with your compassion.
Enveloped in your light, may we be beacons to those in search of light. Sheltered in your peace, may we offer shelter to those in need of peace. Embraced by your presence, so may we be present to others. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Contemporary Version by Jim Cotter in NZ Prayerbook

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, Loving God in whom is heaven –

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe; the way of your justice be followed by all peoples on Earth;
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings;
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on Earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us; in the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us; In the times of temptation and test, strengthen us; From trials too great to endure, spare us; From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, Now and forever. Amen.

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

"I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you, for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

Your word O Lord is a lamp to our feet, and a light to our path.

Anthem O Rex gloriae
Luca Marenzio

1553-1599

O rex gloriae, Domine virtutum, qui triumphator hodie super omnes caelos ascendisti hodie ne derelinquas nos orphanos, sed mitte promissum Patris in nos, Spiritum veritatis. Alleluia.

[O King of Glory, Lord of Hosts, who have this day ascended in triumph above all the heavens: do not leave us orphans, but send us the Promise of the Father, the Spirit of Truth. Alleluia.]

Hymn 369 Hail the day that sees him rise
vv. 1, 3, 5-6

Offering God is gone up with a merry noise
William Croft

1678-1727

God is gone up with a merry noise and the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

O sing praises unto our God, O sing praises unto our King.

For God is king of all the earth.

O sing ye praises with understanding. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

God of our faith, we give thanks for the gift of life, and your abundant provision of what we need for life. We offer our lives and our gifts to be agents and channels of your love for the world. Bless our giving and our living. Amen.

Hymn 514 Be known to us in breaking bread

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

‘Come as you are’ is the invitation to the table representing God’s hospitality. You are all welcome at the Lord’s table – where we share the elements of bread and wine that become for us the bread of life and the cup of endless love.

Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give thanks for the earth and its abundance for life.

We give thanks for Jesus Christ, who models love and compassion for us followers.

We recall how Jesus shared a meal with his disciples. He took bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to his disciples saying, “This is my body which is given for you.” In the same way he took the cup, and after giving thanks, poured it out and gave the cup to his disciples saying, "This cup is the new relationship with God sealed with my blood."

With Holy Communion, we reaffirm our commitment to our relationship with God and with one another.

In Christ and through Christ we receive the generous hospitality of God with grateful hearts.

The bread of life given for you; and

The cup of love poured out for you.

Let us receive these gifts in faith with thanksgiving. We receive what we become, the body of Christ.

Distribution of Elements

Prayer after Communion

God of all, we give thanks that we have been nourished by these symbols of your love for us. May we continue to grow in love for each other. May we live each day demonstrating the love of Christ, with courage and in peace. Amen.

Hymn 217 Love divine, all loves excelling

Blessing

May God's peace be with you, whatever you do.

May God's light be your guide, wherever you go.

May God fill your heart with limitless love and grace.

The blessings of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with us all now and forever. Amen.

Roundtable Gathering for Climate Justice in the Uniting Church Session 1: Thursday, 21 May at 2pm via Zoom

As a Church, we are called not only to proclaim the Gospel, but to live it—responding to God’s love through our care for one another and for the whole of creation. A series of three Assembly Net Zero Emissions online Roundtable gatherings will focus on Climate Justice this year, each held via Zoom for two hours. Together, these gatherings seek to:

- Equip the Church to respond faithfully to the call to Climate Justice
- Strengthen connection and shared purpose across our communities
- Encourage ongoing action in local contexts and spheres of influence

The gatherings are an opportunity for us, as the Uniting Church, to deepen our shared commitment to this work—grounded in faith, shaped by the wisdom of First Peoples, and expressed through practical action in our communities. You are encouraged to take part in these important conversations and to invite others within your communities to join you.

Session 1: Thursday, 21 May at 2pm.

Call for Nominations for Election to Eldership and/or Church Council

On Sunday, 31st May 2026 we will have the Annual General Meeting of the Toorak Uniting Church Congregation at which we will receive the church accounts for approval and vote for Elders and Church Councillors.

Elders and Church Councillors serve on Church Council, unless otherwise authorised by Presbytery. The nominated term is for between one and five years, after which they may stand for re-election.

The priority of the Church Council is to build the congregation up in faith and love.

The responsibilities of Church Council include[†]:

- Sharing with the ministers in the encouragement of faith and love to all Church members; assisting the ministers with worship, particularly at Communion, Baptism, Confirmation and other special occasions.
- Assisting on rosters of welcome, vestry duty.
- Making decisions in keeping with regulations: managing financial affairs and general administration: arranging for audit, presentation and examination of the accounts; preparing and presenting annual reports to the Congregation.
- Managing and controlling property.
- Referring matters to Presbytery as required.
- Exercising discipline on behalf of the Congregation as appropriate.
- Managing Child Protection Reporting; ensuring the Church is a safe place for all people.

In addition, Elders “assist in the spiritual oversight of the congregation” through

- Attending regular bi-monthly Elders’ meetings.
- Pastorally caring, encouraging and supporting their assigned congregational members.
- Serving communion and preparing the table and the elements.
- Being a point of contact for baptismal parents and assisting with baptism.

If you would like to be nominated as an Elder, please arrange to speak with Rev Syliva 'Akau'ola Tongotongo or Rev John Edwards.

Who can be members of the Church Council?

Confirmed members & members in association; Elders or leaders; any ministry agents in placement.

The Church Council meets bi-monthly.

The terms of office of one current Elder, and two current Members of Church Council not being Elders, expire on 30th June 2026.

Church Council exercises oversight of both the smooth running and mission direction of TUC and renewal of its membership strengthens our congregation. You are invited to consider whether this is a way in which you can contribute to the life and work of the Church.

Nominations need to be received in writing by the Secretary of Congregation, James Barber, by 17th May 2026, preferably by email to jbarber@vicbar.com.au.
