Costumes from the 1800's

I have often been asked about the costumes I have made for the balls we go to in Florence each year, and I will be showing these in our apartment on Thursday 18th July. We will start at 2:00pm and there will be afternoon tea. I would love anyone interested in historic costumes to join us. Call Sandra Stacy to RSVP or leave a message on 9531 8458.

Well done to the Garden Bee Crew, Mary, Rick, Angela, Stan, Barbara, Chris, Sam, Robert and Charlie who have prepared the John Macrae Centre gardening for a wondrous Spring and to Thomas Man for his generous support.

Transitions — Preparing for the best and worst times

Hampton Uniting Church invites you to attend their forum and Q&A exploring transitions in aging and how to best prepare for them. Featuring Rachel Wass (CEO of Meaningful Ageing Australia), Claire Brockett (Director of Mission at Uniting AgeWell), and Nick Carr (Board Member of Dying with Dignity Victoria).

When: Tuesday July 9, 2-4pm

Where: Hampton Uniting Church, 17 Service Street, Hampton VIC 3188

Tickets: www.trybooking.com/CRZKD

Suggested donation of $10. Morning tea included.

Notices from Café.603 — Annual Survey and Ready Meals!

Within the printed order of services is Café.603's annual survey. It is an integral part of their growth that the congregation participates. Completed surveys may be left in a box available at morning tea following the 10:15am service. The survey is anonymous.

Café.603 is taking expressions of interests for their ready-made meals weekly newsletter via email. Angela will be at the back of the church at the end of the 10:15am service with a clipboard for you to note your interest or to answer any of your questions.

At the AGM on Sunday June 16 Thomson Sennitt was elected as a Church Councillor and Chris Begg as an Elder, each for a five year term. Gratitude was expressed for the service of outgoing Church Councillor Jon Sennitt

QArt Artists at Kinross Arts Centre

Kinross hosted the opening celebration of Uniting Through Colour by QArt Studio on June 14th. The gifted artists displayed the result of their hard work in a joyful event. Guest speakers included Carlos Aguado from the Endeavour Foundation, Lily Platts (Gallery Supervisor at QArt), and artists Stefan Farina and Jarrod Wendt. We are grateful to the UAT Committee and Jon Sennitt for their support in staging the event. TUC is sponsoring this exhibition by QArt Studio (Endeavour Foundation), a social enterprise providing employment, mentoring, and training for professional artist with intellectual disabilities. Visit and support this lively exhibition of abstract art, jewellery, and more until June 28.
