The Director and Committee of the Kinross Arts Centre,
together with David Ross-Smith

Invite you to a Soiree at David's home, 15 Watson Street, Glen Iris on Sunday, 27 October at 4pm.

The concert is a fundraising venture for Kinross Arts, and a celebration of the centenary year of the Reverend David Hodges AM, Minister of Toorak Presbyterian/Uniting Church 1968-1983.

Music loved by David Hodges, or which evokes places significant in his life e.g. Scotland, Norway and New York, will be performed by members of the TUC Choir and students of David Ross-Smith.

Guest artists will include talented opera singers Kate Amos, soprano and Samuel Thomas-Holland, tenor.

The program will include arias by Handel, Donizetti, Bizet (the duet from The Pearlfishers), piano music by Elgar and Grieg, folk songs from Scotland, and music theatre songs by Irving Berlin and George Gershwin.

The concert will be followed by refreshments.

Admission: $35 or $30 concession

With limited space for seating, booking is essential

PROGETTO CORELLI presents Le Concert Spirituel 3pm, Sunday 22 November | Toorak Uniting Church

Cosmopolitan sounds from Paris, under the reign of Louis XV.

With a wonderful program consisting of Antoine Dauvergne, Jean-Marie Leclair, François Couperin, Antoine Dornel, Michel Corrette, and Joseph Bodin de Boismortier—this concert is not to be missed!

Our own Director of Music, Dylan Quinlan-Baskett will be performing the Hurdy Gurdy and Harpsichord.

Admission is free, but bookings are required.

Please contact office@toorakuc.org.au for the booking link.

Artist Talk - Fanfare for the Spirited Woman

On Friday, August 23, Kinross Arts Centre hosted the opening of Savanna Storm's jewellery exhibition, Fanfare for the Spirited Woman.

The event featured guest speaker Dilnaz Billimoria, an advocate for cultural diversity and understanding, and refreshments were provided by the UAT Committee.
