The Dignity We Share: Interfaith Conference | Mon 29–Tue 30 June at Trinity College Theological School, 100 Royal Parade, Parkville

The Dignity We Share: Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Perspectives on Faith, Identity, and Human Worth is an interfaith conference exploring how our traditions affirm human dignity—and where they have struggled to uphold it.

Featuring keynote speakers Rabbi Allison Conyer, Dr Joshua Ralston, and Dr Jerusha Rhodes, the program includes an opening dinner on 29 June and a full conference day on 30 June with keynote addresses and a panel discussion. For more information and to book, please visit trybooking.com/events/landing/1567886.

2026 Stonnington Volunteer Awards

It's National Volunteer Week and nominations are now open at stonnington.vic.gov.au/volunteer-awards for the 2026 Stonnington Volunteer Awards. These awards celebrate the outstanding volunteers and community groups that help make Stonnington a more inclusive, connected and vibrant place. We encourage you to share this opportunity with your networks and consider nominating someone you know who makes a difference. Thank you for helping us recognise the people who strengthen our community.
